Producing Stationery for distribution at a Funeral Service is a simple and popular way of personalising the arrangements, providing both family and friends alike with a lasting memento of a difficult but important day.

Our In-house Service

In order to provide our clients with a range of printed items such as Service sheets within the times-scales of a typical funeral, we have invested in design and print technology which allows us to produce these items to an exceptional level of quality.

By keeping this process in-house we ensure that a family's personal preferences can be incorporated into the design, and amendments in the design or quantity required can be made at short notice if necessary. Costs are also significantly lower than commercial printers, especially for smaller volumes.

We offer a range of options for use at the Funeral Service, including:

- Order of Service or Hymn sheets. An Order of Service sheet guides the congregation through the Service, including the words of any hymns to be sung, as well as details of individual poems, readings and tributes. These are collated in conjunction with the person taking the Funeral Service. As a simpler option, we can simply print the words of the hymns.
- Memento Sheets. A single sheet of A5 card with a front design and a poem or messages on the rear.
- Thanks or Funeral Details cards. A6 cards with envelopes expressing thanks after the funeral, or providing details of the funeral beforehand.

Depending on the content, Order of Service or Hymn sheets consist of a single piece of folded card forming a four page A4 booklet, or two pieces of folded card stapled together to give eight pages. For 12 page booklets, the insert pages are 100gm paper. 250gm cardstock is used - the same as that used to produce the cover of this booklet.

Please note that all photographs used in this booklet are stock images.

Borders.

Photographs

Photographs which are incorporated into the front cover design are typically head and shoulders images of the deceased in either a faded oval or square or with a sharp edge and a shadow background - this can depend on the type of photograph. If you have a preference, please let us know.

In addition to the photograph on the front cover, additional photographs can be incorporated throughout the Order of Service – these can be photographs from throughout the deceased's life, or photographs of family members, the garden, the dog – whatever is most appropriate.

Supplying images

To get the best possible quality reproduction, please supply either a digital image of at least 300dpi or an original photograph. Original photographs will be scanned and returned to you. Photographs which have been printed at home – particularly onto ordinary paper – often do not reproduce well.

When selecting an image of the deceased for the front cover, please try to supply one where the deceased is in focus, not overlapped by other people or objects, and where their head and shoulders are at least 2 inches high – sometimes in group photographs each individual's face is very small, and when increased in size can lose focus and appear blurry. Generally speaking, older colour photographs reproduce less well than black and white, because colour inks degrade faster than black.

Content.

The content will depend upon the type of Service or Ceremony which is to be held. A full Order of Service / Ceremony typically includes headings detailing the music, hymns, readings and tributes. Where individuals other than the Minister or Officiant are contributing, their names can be stated.

Example section from an Order of Service sheet:

Order of Service Opening Music Jesu Joy of Mans Desiring Hymn The Lord's my Shepherd The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want; He makes me down to lie In pastures green: He leads me The quiet waters by. My soul He doth restore again And me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteousness Even for his own name's sake. Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale, Yet will I fear none ill; For Thou art with me, and Thy rod And staff me comfort still. My table Thou hast furnished In presence of my foes; My head Thou dost with oil anoint, And my cup overflows. Goodness and mercy all my life Shall surely follow me; And in God's house for evermore My dwelling place shall be.	Bible Reading John 14 1-6 Address REV. G. TIM JONES Poem The more you give read by Jane The more you give, the more you get, The more you laugh, the less you fret; The more you do unselfishly, the more you live abundantly The more of everything you share, the more you always have to spare; The more you love, the more you'll find That life is good and friends are kind: For only what we give away enriches us from day to day. Prayers, including the Lord's Prayer Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever, Amen. Committal Closing Music Time to say goodbye – Sarah Brightman and Andrea Bocelli

A simpler option is to print only the words of the hymns to be sung.
